S/Y Baracuda Valletta is a Perini Navi sailing yacht, a masterpiece of the well-known interior designer John Pawson, with contemporary, minimal, clear lines based on the concepts of light, space and proportion.

She accommodates up to 10 guests in 5 luxurious suites; one full beam master cabin with his and hers bathrooms, two double and two twin cabins with one semi double and one single bed, all with ensuite facilities. Her contemporary character is enhanced by the state-of-the-art AV System.

The transom door can be cleverly opened to transform into a large platform for sunbathing and swimming. The hydraulically operated swimming platform can be submerged half meter below the water's surface accessed by guests via a staircase. Outstanding outdoor areas comprising of a wide fully shaded dining and lounge area with electrically elevated table on the aft and a sundeck with sunbathing and a shaded lounge area.
